Mr. Subba Raju N - Chief Vigilance Officer

- Chief Vigilance Officer, AU

Mr. Subba Raju N serves as the Chief Vigilance Officer (CVO) at Atria University, bringing decades of experience in governance, compliance, and ethical oversight. As CVO, he is responsible for ensuring transparency and integrity in university operations, overseeing the implementation of policies to prevent malpractice, and fostering a culture of accountability across all departments.

Mr. Raju's leadership is underscored by his expertise in vigilance and his unwavering commitment to maintaining high standards of ethical conduct. He actively engages with staff and students to promote awareness of best practices in compliance and ethical decision-making.

Beyond his role as a CVO, Mr. Subba Raju is known for his approachable demeanor, professional acumen, and dedication to upholding the values of the university.